Greetings,

I am delighted to welcome you to the annual "Jazz Under the Stars" Scholarship Benefit Concert.

First, I would like to personally acknowledge and thank the Clark Atlanta University (CAU) Guild members for their dedication and commitment to making this annual event a tremendous success. Your partnership with the University's leadership and staff is a testament to your willingness to help move the University's fundraising efforts forward for the gifted and talented students we serve.

I am grateful to the CAU Guild for continuing to sponsor this unique event, which has not only become a signature fundraising event but also an Atlanta spring tradition. Since its inception in 1992, the CAU Guild, founded by former Clark Atlanta University First Lady Judge Brenda Hill Cole, has raised more than $3.2 million. This significant amount has provided life-changing financial assistance to CAU students majoring in performing arts, creative writing, drama, film, and music. For the past 29 years, the Guild has hosted the "Jazz Under the Stars" Benefit Concert as an evening of community engagement, fun, fellowship, and fundraising. The Harkness Hall Quadrangle comes to life each year by featuring famous talents such as Rachele Ferrell, Laila Hathaway, Will Downing, and Jeffery Osborne, to name a few.

This year, with great excitement, I am pleased to announce our headliner: Grammy award winner and American jazz singer Gregory Porter.

Lastly, on behalf of the CAU Board of Trustees, students, faculty, and staff, I thank you for spending this special evening with us and investing in the future of the students we serve.

Greetings,

Dear Friends and Family,

You are amazing! As I reflect on the generosity of thousands of you throughout the years, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for your continued support of Jazz Under the Stars! This is the 32nd year anniversary of the Clark Atlanta University Guild. We are honored to feature this annual inspiring benefit concert. In keeping with tradition, the CAU Guild will feature yet another extraordinary and gifted musician by bringing you the unequivocal artistry of Dianne Reeves and her fantastic quintet. In addition, gracing the JUTS bandstand — you will hear from the talented CAU Jazz Vocal Ensemble and the renowned CAU Jazz Orchestra, under the direction of James H. Patterson.

Since our founding 32 years ago, we have raised over $ 3.2 million in scholarships for Clark Atlanta University scholars of the arts, in collaboration with donors like you. Congratulations to the Guild officers and members for your loyal and dedicated work. Sincere thanks to our sponsors and all our guests for your generous support to ensure we meet our mission of offering scholarships to deserving students in the disciplines of art, fashion, design, theatre, film, and mass media art television at Clark Atlanta University - ONE EXCEPTIONAL UNIVERSITY!

Fondly,

Brenda H. Cole

Greetings,

Hello Friends of the Guild!

Welcome back to Jazz Under the Stars and welcome into the fold for all those experiencing this great tradition for the very first time. Your financial contributions raise critical funds to support the brilliant minds of young adults matriculating through the studies of arts, fashion, film, design, theatre, and mass media at the amazing Clark Atlanta University. Collectively we are contributors to ensuring that the next generation of artists can reach their greatest potential. Gratitude is an understatement for just how thankful we are as the Clark Atlanta University Guild. We appreciate your commitment to support our mission of generating scholarship funds for deserving CAU scholars as we celebrate our 32nd year anniversary of the CAU Guild featuring Grammy Award winning jazz artist Gregory Porter during the annual Jazz Under the Stars benefit concert.

Tonight, we pay tribute to the Clark Atlanta University Guild Founder, Judge Brenda Hill Cole for her vision and celebrate the outstanding contributions of the entire CAU Guild membership! Together we have raised over $3.2 Million to ensure bright minds have scholarship resources to underwrite the cost of higher education and live out their dreams with less financial burdens when they graduate.

On behalf of the Guild, students, faculty, and staff at Clark Atlanta University, we encourage you to sit back, break bread and dine, renew, and enjoy this beautiful American classical music—called Jazz. Then hold on to your seats - as we hear all our favorite tunes by two times Grammy Award winning vocalist, Gregory Porter !

Cheers and enjoy!

About the Guild

Mission

The mission of the Clark Atlanta University (CAU) Guild is to support scholarships for students in art, music, film, fashion, theatre, and mass media arts.

Purpose

The purpose of the Clark Atlanta University Guild is to develop a diverse group of volunteer women who will commit their time and resources to build awareness of the University's art, music, theatre, film, and mass media arts programs. Specifically, the Guild will actively raise scholarships funds for students participating in the art, music, theatre, and film at the university. While there may be several events in which financial support will be solicited, the Guild 's primary fundraising event is it's annual "Jazz Under the Stars" concert which has culminated into raising over 3.2 million dollars for CAU students.

Background

Founded in 1992 by former Clark Atlanta University First Lady Judge Brenda Hill Cole, the CAU Guild seeks to increase awareness of Clark Atlanta University 's unique contributions to the cultural life of Atlanta and the nation. Guild members include women of CAU faculty, staff and alumnae of the University, as well as some of Atlanta's most influential community and business leaders who are advocates for the university and its' performing arts program.

GRAMMY AWARD WINNING ARTIST

Gregory Porter

GRAMMY AWARD WINNING

Gregory Porter

Acclaimed singer and songwriter Gregory Porter was raised in Bakersfield, California, and he cites the Bakersfield Southern Gospel sound, as well as his mother's Nat King Cole record collection, as fundamental influences on his own sound. Porter began singing in small jazz clubs in San Diego while attending San Diego State University on a football scholarship. Eventually Porter moved to New York City to pursue music full-time and his career began to ascend with the release of his first two albums -Water (2010) and Be Good (2012)-both of which received GRAMMY nominations. In 2013, he released his breakout Blue Note debut Liquid Spirit which quickly grew into a global phenomenon, selling more than a million albums and earning Porter his first GRAMMY Award with NPR declaring him "America's Next Great Jazz Singer." His 2016 follow-up Take Me To The Alley won Porter his second GRAMMY for Best Vocal Jazz Album and firmly established him as his generation's most soulful jazz singer-songwriter. In 2017, Porter released the heartfelt tribute album Nat King Cole & Me, and in 2020 returned to his original songwriting on the uplifting ALL RISE, both of which received GRAMMY nominations. His 2021 release Still Rising collected new songs, covers, duets, and a selection of his much-loved favorite songs. Porter has hosted the podcast The Hang, a conversation series featuring his famous friends, as well as his own cooking show The PorterHouse, in which the singer shared recipes inspired by his local community, experiences from touring the globe, and family cooking traditions from growing up with his mother and seven siblings.

INSPIRING AND EQUIPPING FAITH COMMUNITIES

What do our faith communities have to do with the epidemic of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias?

Everything.

For so many people, their faith community is the place where they uplift more than just their spirit. It's also the center of their social and emotional lives. But the impacts of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias can push those affected away from their faith communities for all the wrong reasons. whatever their burdens might be.

The spiritual needs of people with dementia are the same as everyone else. Together, we can serve and enrich the lives of all members, including those with dementia and the families who love them by providing education, worship, and support.
